But they should bear in mind that nearly the whole of the disorders to which this noble animal is liable, derive their origin from a Gold. The causes of Colds are various, but the most usual one is riding the horse until he is hot, and then suffering him to stand still exposed to the cold air; removing him from a hot stable to a cold one: if the horse has been high-fed, and clothed, the cold contracted in this manner often proves very violent; and this is the reason why horses often catch a severe cold on their first coming out of the dealers hands: neglecting to rub him properly down, and to rub the sweat carefully off when he comes...
