Excerpt: . . . education services to Fort Sam Houston, Texas; and the museum to Walter Reed National Military Medical Center. Other services currently provided by AFIP would be discontinued, transferred to other parts of DOD, or contracted out to the civilian medical community. For example, second-opinion pathology consultations for military personnel and their families would be sent to civilian laboratories and paid for on an as-needed basis. The departments recommendations will now be reviewed by the BRAC Commission, which will seek comments from the potentially affected communities. Once the commission has completed its review, it will present its recommendations to the President and Congress. The process is expected to be completed by the end of 2005. AFIP developed its business plan to improve its internal controls and AFIPs Business Plan reduce its need for DOD funding by cutting costs and increasing its Has Four Key revenues from civilian work. To do this, the business plan has four key initiatives, which AFIP estimated would save the institute 17. 5 million a Initiatives and Intends year when fully implemented....
