Among the rank and file employees in the two cities the voluntary vacations are rarely taken unless the individual s health or some other emergency demands it. The average of the voluntary vacation in a year for the 28 saleswomen is 1.3 weeks. If the 13 weeks that one girl spent at the bedside of a sick relative in a neighboring State is omitted, the average is less than 0.9 of a week. The character of the employment precludes any very great loss from involuntary vacations. The force taken on at the holiday season is usually laid off by the 1st of January, but this extra force is not drawn from the ranks of the regular workers as a rule. There is a tendency to keep a smaller force during the summer months. A few of the high-grade stores allow their employees 1 week s vacation with pay, but usually no compensation is received during a vacation period. 49450---S. Doc. 645, 61-2, vol. 5 9 The average time lost through illness was 1.2 weeks. This does not include illness where a benefit from the association was received or where the wage was continued during the period of illness. For the adrift factory women the average time at school was 7.2 years. The tendency to gloss the truth was probably as marked in the answers to this as to any other question in the investigation. While many different nationalities are represented...
